(PERSONNEL DIVISION)

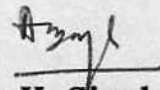

DSIIDC/Insurance Backed Medical Scheme/Estt.

Dated: 06-06-2019

Subject : Reimbursement cases under the Insurance Backed Cashless Medical Scheme

As all are aware, the term of the present cashless medical scheme for the employees (including retired employees who have opted for this scheme) is expiring on 28-07-2019. Hence, all the beneficiaries of the Cashless Medical scheme, are advised to furnish details of unsettled expenses over and above their entitled family floater cover positively by 15th July 2019 to the Personnel Division, DSIIDC.

The term "unsettled expenses" is not used in the context of non-entitled expenses i.e. extra expenditure over and above their respective entitlement (family floater cover) and also the non-payable expenses (listed as per IRDA guidelines). Also employees may kindly note, that such requests for reimbursement over and above the family floater cover is subject to scrutiny as per policy features and also availability of funds. It may further be noted that if requests are not submitted within the stipulated time, the Corporation shall not be responsible for reimbursement of such claims.
