

DELHI STATE INDUSTRIAL AND INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

PRESS RELEASE

News is being floated in the media that some cases of leasehold to freehold of DSIIDC sheds has been done in DSIIDC after 2010 which were not as per law. It is clarified that the conversion to leasehold to freehold has been done following all the laws and after seeking due approvals of the competent authorities. The scheme for conversion from leasehold to freehold was introduced by Ministry of Urban Development, Govt of India and duly approved by Hon'ble LG of Delhi. All the cases of leasehold to freehold conversion have been done after receipt of due conversion charges approved by Hon'ble LG from each applicant.